Hosting Organization: Tai Chi Qigong Association of America (TCQGAA)

The Tai Chi Qigong Association of America (TCQGAA) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization of professionals that is dedicated to the promotion of Tai Chi, Wushu and Health Qigong in the US and related cultural exchanges among countries, through organizing and coordinating teaching classes, training workshops, research forums, competitions, public expositions and other activities among various Tai Chi, Wushu and Health Qigong groups.

Sanction Organization: United States of America Wushu Kungfu Federation (USAWKF)

The United States of America Wushu Kungfu Federation (USAWKF) is the official United States representative to the 146 member-nation International Wushu Federation (IWUF). The USAWKF is the first and only organization in the U.S. to successfully develop regional and national activities, and its formation has tremendously improved the way Wushu-Kungfu events are managed and conducted in the U.S.

Competition Rules

Contemporary Wushu: conducted in accordance with the Wushu Taolu Competition Rules and Judging Methods (2024) endorsed by the IWUF.

- Adopting rules for events without Degree of Difficulty
- No required specifications on the competition weaponry

Traditional Wushu: conducted in accordance with the Traditional Wushu Competition Rules and Judging Methods (2019)

Health Qigong: conducted in accordance with the Health Qigong Competition Rules (2012)

Competition Grouping

Grouping Principles:

- a) Feature separate competitions for different styles and equipment categories.
- b) Grouping is designed based on the distribution of participants' ages and the number of participants in each event.

Age Groups: (based on the age that the athletes turned or are turning in 2025)

6 years old and under ; 7-8 years old ; 9-10 years old ; 11-12 years old ; 13-14 years old
15-16 years old ; 17-18 years old ; 19-25 years old ; 26-30 years old ; 31-40 years old ;
41-55 years old ; 56-69 years old ; 70 years old and above

Time Requirement

- a) Athletes under the age of 18 are not subject to any time restrictions on their competition routines.
- b) No time restrictions on IWUF Compulsory Routines
- c) Athletes with the age of 18 and above are subject to the following time requirement:
  - Taolu: no less than 1 minute
  - Taiji and Health Qigong: 3 to 4 minutes
  - Group Event: 30 seconds to 2 minutes
  - Duilian: no less than 40 seconds

Ranking and Awards

Gold, Silver, and Bronze medals will be awarded in each of the individual, group, and duilian events. Specifically, the top 20% will receive gold medals. The next 30% will receive silver medals. The remaining 50% will receive bronze medals. The number of medals for each event will be adjusted to the actual number of athletes, rounded up or down. Events with 3 people or fewer may be combined in the same categories. Medals can be collected at the onsite award table immediately after each event.

Grand Champion Award

To be eligible to compete, an athlete will need to register for the Grand Championship during registration. Athletes should compete in at least 3 events, of which must include one barehand, one short weapon and one long weapon event. The organizing committee will combine the highest scores from each category to determine placing. The male and female athletes in each of the following age groups with the highest combined scores will receive the Grand Championship Award. The Grand Championship Award is given to two divisions. One is for contemporary wushu and the other is for traditional wushu.

7-8 years old, 9-10 years old, 11-12 years old, 13-14 years old, 15-16 years old, 17-18 years old
19-25 years old, 26 years old and above

The Grand Champions of each age group will be presented trophies and perform at the closing ceremony. The two athletes with the first and second highest combined scores will also be awarded a $500 and $300 Wushu Competition Scholarship respectively.
